The Provincial Health Services Authority (PHSA) plans, manages and evaluates selected specialty and province-wide health care services across BC, working with the five geographic health authorities to deliver province-wide solutions that improve the health of British Columbians. PHSA embodies values that reflect a commitment to excellence. These include: Respect people • Be compassionate • Dare to innovate • Cultivate partnerships • Serve with purpose.

Provincial Health Services Authority Indigenous Youth Wellness Program Internship Opportunity: Program Assistant

PHSA Youth Wellness Program: The Program Assistant will work alongside the Indigenous Youth Wellness team to support the development, implementation and evaluation of various wellness focused initiatives for Indigenous youth across the province. This will include: resource design, community engagement and group facilitation, utilizing social media platforms and conference/workshop planning. The Program Assistant will also work to support the implementation of two upstream wellness and suicide prevention programs that are offered part within an online environment, and in part within First Nations communities or organizations.

Skills: Strong knowledge of Indigenous communities, especially social and health areas. Strong social media and communications skills, community engagement, report writing and ability to work independently and as part of a team. Proficiency with Microsoft and Adobe suites an asset.

Term: Full time from September 5th, 2017 to December 29th, 2017, with the possibility of an extension.

Pay: $18/hr

Location: Based at 601 West Broadway, Vancouver

Preference will be given to Aboriginal applicants.
